Covenant Groups

Need to recharge your spiritual batteries?

Consider joining a covenant group

Covenant groups are small groups of six to eight people who meet regularly to share, explore spiritual wisdom, develop friendships, and to come closer to the UU community. In addition to sharing personal thoughts around a selected topic, an important focus is on the intentional and spiritual practice of listening. Each person will have an opportunity to be heard.

We are taking sign-ups through September in the Narthex for groups to begin the week of October 5.
